Dreams Come True

Lorraine Peterson held on to her dream to open her own shop. The vision was always there for an adorable shop right there on her property. She knew baby steps would need to be taken to get it off the ground, but never did she think it would take off so quickly. Starting out in her converted garage, only months after opening, Lorraine knew her dream would come true much sooner than she thought. Construction began on the "Shabby Shed" and Lorraine was finally able to make the shop everything she always wanted. Between designing, planning, layout, painting, decorating and moving in, Lorraine, her husband and fellow consignors have been very busy. Customers from near and far have been watching the progress and are as eager as we are for the new shop to open. Well, the wait is over! Starting Thursday, September, 1st, the "new" Shabby Shed will be open for business. Stop out and take a look at all the new things we have to offer. Additional consignors have come on board to bring even more fun and excitement to the mix. The best part about visiting the Shabby Shed is there are wonderful heartfelt memories around every corner and treasures everywhere! You catch yourself saying stuff like, "My grandma had a cookie jar just like that" or "these look just like the lamps we had when I was a kid" or best of all finding that one special piece that you know brought a lot of joy to someone for many years and now it is coming home with you to start a new chapter of memories. The best part for us, is hearing the stories. We love to hear all the heartwarming stories people share about an item they see that brings back wonderful memories. "When you love what you do as much as I do", stated Lorraine, "you cannot call it a job; it is more of a pleasurable pastime". "Becoming an entrepreneur was always a goal, however I am loving it more than I ever imagined. Shabby Shed consignors: Shari, Jodi, Shelly, Jill, Laurianne, Amanda, Michelle, Marion, Colleen, Karen, Heather, Holly and Julie. Hope to see you soon!
